LEADERSHIP COUNCIL ON LEGAL DIVERSITY

Law School Mentoring Program

PURPOSE

The LCLD Law School Mentoring Program is designed to ensure first-year law students from diverse backgrounds receive the support, guidance, and practical advice needed to maximize their potential during law school and beyond.

THE MENTORING EXPERIENCE

- ▶ Individual, personalized mentorship from attorneys of all ranks at LCLD Member organizations
- ▶ Group mentoring activities to help you build relationships and gain insights from panels of attorneys (also open to 2L and 3L students)
- ▶ Choice of city (in-person) model or virtual model to maximize flexibility and inclusivity

HOW IT WORKS

- 1 To be eligible as a Mentee, you must be enrolled as a first-year law student and in good standing at an ABA-approved law school.
- 2 Register as a Mentee starting in August 2024. Registration closes November 18, 2024, so don't wait!

- 3 LCLD will match you with one of our volunteer Mentors based on a range of possible factors (e.g., practice area, location, etc.).
- 4 LCLD will reach out to connect you with your Mentor. The rest is up to you!

LCLD Mentors are top legal professionals — including several corporate General Counsel and law firm Managing Partners — who actively invest their time, experiences, and resources into their Mentees' development.
